Duties of a Council member

The current City Council term officially runs from January 1, 2008 through December 31, 2011. Councilmembers are elected by all the registered voters in the City. All of the City Council members work together to provide policy decisions that benefit the community as a whole and provide quality service to all of Lovejoy's residents.

Councilmembers are empowered to make policy decisions and to approve ordinances, resolutions, and other local legislation to govern the health, welfare, comfort, and safety of the city's residents. The city council sets policy guidelines for the administrative and fiscal operations of the city.
